Open to all 1st– and 3rd-semester English students (and any Uni Stuttgart student interested in improv!)

Come get to know other first- and third-semester English students for a day of thrilling exercises and exchanges.

We will watch an online screening of the Irish theatre play The Weir, full of supernatural ghost stories and hauntings. Then you'll improv your own ghost stories with other students, led by a specialist in theatre stagecraft. If weather allows, we'll shift the final improv session outside.
